TRADEMARKS ACT 2019

GUIDELINES OF TRADEMARKS (TRANSITIONAL MATTERS) 2019

THESE GUIDELINES are issued in the exercise of the power conferred upon the Registrar by section 183 of the Trademarks Act 2019 [Act 815].

PART 1

Preliminary

Citation, effective date and scope

1. (1) These guidelines may be cited as Guidelines of Trademarks (Transitional Matters) 2019.
- (2) These Guidelines shall be effective on 27 December 2019 until further notice by the Registrar.
- (3) These Guidelines set out requirements for all matters relating to transitional provisions as stipulated in Chapter 2 of Part XIX of the Trademarks Act 2019.
- (4) The provisions of the Trademarks Act 2019, Trademarks Regulations 2019, Guidelines of Trademarks 2019 and these Guidelines form the regulatory framework for the law of trademarks in Malaysia which shall be read together simultaneously.
- (5) In order to assist with the interpretation of the requirements under these Guidelines and their application, explanation, illustration or examples have been inserted, where appropriate. Any action or conduct which departs from explanation, illustration or examples shall be taken into account by the Registrar in determining compliance with these Guidelines as well as the Trademarks Act 2019, Trademarks Regulations 2019 dan the Guidelines of Trademarks 2019.

(6) These Guidelines shall not apply to—

(a) application for registration of trademarks; and

(b) registered trademarks, which are not affected by provisions on transitional matters under Part XIX of the Trademarks Act 2019.

Interpretation

2. Unless otherwise defined, all words or terms used in these Guidelines shall have the meaning as defined in the Trademarks Act 2019. In these Guidelines, unless the context otherwise requires—

(a) “the Act” means the Trademarks Act 2019;

(b) “the Registrar” means the Registrar of Trademarks under section 12 of the Trademarks Act 2019;

(c) “the Regulations” means the Trademarks Regulations 2019;

(d) “the Guidelines” means the Guidelines of Trademarks 2019; and

(e) “the repealed Act” means the Trade Marks Act 1976.

PART II
Matters

Filing of any documents

3. The requirements of filing and service under the Act, the Regulations and the Guidelines shall be applicable on the applicant or registered proprietor in filing any documents according to these Guidelines.

Conversion of pending application

4. (1) Where an application for registration of trade mark under section 25 of the repealed Act has been filed by an applicant with the Registrar but has not been examined by the Registrar on the commencement of this Act, the Registrar may examine the application of the trademark relating to the registrability of the trademark according to the provisions of the Act.
- (2) Before the Registrar examines the application under subparagraph (1), the applicant may give notice to the Registrar claiming to have the registrability of the trademark to be determined according to the provisions of the Act by filing an application for conversion of pending application under subsection 174(2) of the Act together with the payment of the prescribed fee within two months from the date of the commencement of the Act.
- (3) The applicant may not add or amend any matters on the representation of the trademarks or the specifications of goods or services, except as required under these Guidelines, as follows:
 - (a) description of the trademarks (if the application comprises sign such as shape of goods or their packaging, colour, sound, scent, hologram, positioning, sequence of motion);

- (b) voluntary disclaimer; and
 - (c) any other requirements required by the Registrar.
- (4) By giving the notice to the Registrar under subparagraph (2), the applicant shall be deemed to have filed an application for registration of trademark according to section 17 of the Act.
- (5) Upon receiving the application by the applicant within the period as stated in subparagraph (2), the Registrar shall record a date of receipt of an application for registration of trademark according to section 22 of the Act.

Illustration for paragraph 4(5)

Z filed an application for registration of trademark under the repealed Act on 15 March 2019 (“the application”). Subsequently, on 30 January 2020, he gives notice to the Registrar claiming to have the registrability of the trademark to be determined according to the provisions of the Act together with the payment of the prescribed fee.

Following the above, the date of filing of the application shall be on 30 January 2020.

- (6) Following paragraphs (4) and (5), the application filed by the applicant shall be examined by the Registrar according to the provisions of the Act where all other relevant provisions relating to an application for registration of trademarks under the Act, Regulations and the Guidelines shall be applicable on the applicant.

Illustration for paragraph 4(1)

Examples of “An application for registration of trade mark under section 25 of the repealed Act has been filed by an applicant with the Registrar but has not been examined by the Registrar” are as follows:

- (i) application which has been filed before the commencement of the Act;
- (ii) the Registrar has conducted formality examination or substantive examination;
- (iii) the Registrar has issued objection to the applicant and the applicant has responded or has not responded;
- (iv) the Registrar has issued “Maintained Objection” and the applicant has or has not filed request for a hearing under subregulation 27(4) or 28(4) of the Trade Marks Regulations 1997;
- (v) the Registrar has fixed the date for hearing but the hearing has or has not been conducted;
- (vi) the Registrar has not issued refusal according to subregulation 29(1) or (2) of the Trade Marks Regulations 1997;
- (vii) the Registrar has not been advertised according to section 27 of the repealed Act.

Amendments of assignment

5. (1) Where an application under section 47 of the repealed Act has been filed by a registered proprietor with the Registrar but the application is:
- (a) pending before the Registrar on the commencement of the Act; or
 - (b) has been determined but has not been finally determined by the Registrar before the commencement of the Act, the Registrar may proceed determining the application according to section 65 and 67 of the Act.

- (2) Before the Registrar determined the application under paragraph (1), the Registrar may require the registered proprietor to file an amendment of assignment application so as to conform to the requirements under section 65 of the Act and Part V of the Guidelines of Trademarks 2019 within the period as specified in the written notice together with the prescribed fee.
- (3) The registered proprietor shall not add or make any alterations on any matters relating to the assignment except as required by the Registrar, as follows:
 - (a) signature by both assignor and assignee;
 - (b) deed of assignment duly signed by the assignor and assignee; or
 - (c) any proof of title to the satisfaction of the Registrar.
- (4) Upon receiving the application by the registered proprietor under paragraph (2), the Registrar shall determine the application according to section 65 of the Act and Part V of the Guidelines.
- (5) The registered proprietor shall be bound to comply with the Registrar's direction therefrom.
- (6) If an applicant of pending application for registration of trade marks under section 172 has filed an application under section 47 of the repealed Act before the commencement of the Act and the trademark subsequently becomes registered under the Act as an existing registered trademark, the Registrar may require the registered proprietor of the existing registered trademark to file an amendment of assignment application under subparagraph 5(2) above.

- (7) If the registered proprietor complies with subparagraph 5(6), paragraphs 5(2) to 5(5) shall apply accordingly.

Amendments of registered user

6. (1) Where an application for registration as a registered user has been filed by a registered proprietor with the Registrar but is:

- (a) pending before the Registrar on the commencement of the Act; or
- (b) has been determined but has not been finally determined by the Registrar before the commencement of the Act, the Registrar may proceed determining the application according to section 65 or 67 of the Act.

- (2) Before the Registrar determined the application under paragraph (1), the Registrar may require the registered proprietor to file an application of amendment of registered user to licensing so as to conform to the requirements under section 65 of the Act and the Part V of the Guidelines within the period as specified in the written notice together with the prescribed fee.

- (3) The registered proprietor shall not add or make any alterations on any matters relating to the registered user except as required by the Registrar, as follows:

- (a) signature by both licensor and licensee;
- (b) types of licensing according to the definition under paragraph 68 (a) or (b) of the Act.

- (4) Upon receiving the application by the registered proprietor under paragraph (2), the Registrar shall determine the application according to section 65 of the Act and the Part V of the Guidelines.
- (5) The registered proprietor shall be bound to comply with the Registrar's direction therefrom.
- (6) If an applicant of pending application for registration of trade marks under section 172 has filed an application under section 48 of the repealed Act before the commencement of the Act and the trademark subsequently becomes registered under the Act as an existing registered trademark, the Registrar may require the registered proprietor of the existing registered trademark to file an amendment registered user application under subparagraph 6(2) above.
- (7) If the registered proprietor complies with subparagraph 6(6), subparagraph 6(2) to 6(5) shall apply accordingly.

Payments of renewal fee

7. (1) Pursuant to subsection 177(2) of the Act, section 39(2) and 40 of the Act shall be applicable on the registered proprietor if the renewal of existing registered mark under the repealed Act falls due on or after the commencement of the Act.
- (2) For the purposes of the subparagraph (1), the renewal fee as specified under the First Schedule of the Regulations shall be applicable regardless that such fee has been paid before the commencement of the Act.

- (3) If the registered proprietor has paid for the renewal fee of an existing registered trademark where the renewal of the registered trademark falls due on or after the commencement of the Act, the registered proprietor shall pay the difference of the renewal fee with the Registrar by filing the form of insufficient of the renewal fee within the period of the renewal under subsection 39(4) of the Act.
- (4) Notwithstanding subparagraphs (1), (2) and (3), the registered proprietor of any existing registered mark under the repealed Act which falls due on or after the commencement of the Act, between 27 December 2019 to 27 March 2020, shall be entitled to pay for the renewal fee or the difference of the renewal fee as specified under the First Schedule of the Regulations until 27 March 2020.
