GEOGRAPHICAL INDICATIONS ACT 2022

GUIDELINES OF GEOGRAPHICAL INDICATIONS 2022

THESE GUIDELINES are issued in the exercise of the power conferred upon the Registrar by section 95 of the Geographical Indications Act 2022 [Act 836].

PART I

PRELIMINARY

Citation, effective date and scope

1. (1) These guidelines may be cited as Guidelines of Geographical Indication 2022.
- (2) These Guidelines shall be effective on 18 March 2022 until further notice issued by the Registrar.
- (3) These Guidelines set out requirements for all matters relating to an application for registration of geographical indication or any procedure relating to a registered geographical indication.
- (4) The provisions of the Geographical Indications Act 2022, Geographical Indications Regulations 2022 and these Guidelines form the regulatory framework for the law of geographical indication in Malaysia which shall be read together simultaneously.
- (5) In order to assist with the interpretation of the requirements under these Guidelines and their application, explanation, examples or illustration have been inserted, where appropriate. Any action which differs from the explanation, examples or illustration may be taken into account by the Registrar in determining compliance with these Guidelines as well as the Geographical Indications Act 2022 and Geographical Indications Regulations 2022.

Interpretation

2. In these Guidelines, unless the context otherwise requires—

“the repealed Act” means the Geographical Indication Act 2000;

“agent” means a registered geographical indication agent whose name is entered in the Register of Geographical Indication Agents;

“the prescribed fee” means the fee referred to in regulation 3 of the Regulations;

“these Guidelines” means the Guidelines of Geographical Indication 2022;

“the Journal” means the Intellectual Property Official Journal specified under section 85 of the Act; and

“the Regulations” means the Geographical Indication Regulations 2022.

- (e) the demarcation of the geographical area to which the geographical indication applies;
- (f) the goods for which the geographical indication is registered; and
- (g) the quality, reputation or other characteristic of the goods for which the geographical indication is registered.

Revocation of acceptance

- 13. (1) Where pursuant to subsection 12(11) of the Act, the acceptance for registration of geographical indication is revoked, the Registrar shall publish such revocation in the Journal and issue a written notice of provisional refusal to the applicant.
- (2) Where the Registrar refuses to register a geographical indication, the applicant may, within the time specified in the written notice, respond—
- (a) by making representations either in writing, or by applying to the Registrar for a hearing together with payment of the prescribed fee (Fee Code: GIA5);
 - (b) by amending the application so as to meet any condition, amendment, modification or limitation imposed or directed by the Registrar through filing an application to amend the application for registration of geographical indication together with payment of the prescribed fee (Fee Code: GIA2); or

- (c) by furnishing additional or any other information or evidence by way of statutory declaration or, viva voce in lieu of or in addition to the statutory declaration.
- (3) The application shall be deemed to be withdrawn if the applicant does not respond within such period as specified in the written notice.
- (4) Upon receiving the application for a hearing under paragraph (2)(a), the Registrar shall give a notice to the applicant the date fixed for the Registrar to hear the applicant's representation.
- (5) After considering the applicant's response, the Registrar shall accept or refuse to register the geographical indication.
- (6) Where the Registrar refuses to register a geographical indication, such refusal shall be notified to the applicant in writing.
- (7) The applicant may, within two months from the date of issuance of the decision of the refusal under subparagraph (6), file a request for the Registrar's written grounds of the refusal together with payment of the prescribed fee (Fee Code: GIA6).
- (8) The Registrar shall not allow an extension of time for the purpose of subparagraph (7).
- (9) The date on which the Registrar's written grounds of the refusal is issued to the applicant shall be deemed to be the date of the Registrar's decision for the purpose of an appeal to Court.
- (10) Any appeal to the Court against the Registrar's decision shall be made within one month from the date the Registrar's written grounds of decision of the refusal is issued to the applicant.

Division 3

Opposition

Filing of notice of opposition

16. (1) As stated in subsection 16(1) of the Act and regulation 7 of the Regulations, any interested person may, within two months from the date of the publication of the acceptance of such application for registration of geographical indication, file a notice of opposition to the application for registration of geographical indication with the Registrar together with payment of the prescribed fee (Fee Code: GIA8).
- (2) For the purpose of filing a notice of opposition under subparagraph (1), the Registrar shall not allow an extension of time for more than two months after the expiry of the period for filing the notice of opposition.
- (3) Where a notice of opposition is filed on the basis of a registered geographical indication or registered trademark, there shall be included in the statement of the grounds of such opposition a representation of that geographical indication or trademark and the following particulars:

- (a)* the details of the authority with which the geographical indication or trademark is registered;
 - (b)* the registration number of that geographical indication or trademark;
and
 - (c)* the goods in respect of which that geographical indication or trademark is registered and the opposition is based.
- (4) Where the opposition is based on a geographical indication or trademark in respect of which an application for registration of geographical indication or trademark has been made, there shall be included in the statement of the grounds of opposition a representation of that geographical indication or trademark and the particulars in subparagraphs (3)(a) to (c).
- (5) Where the opposition is based on an unregistered geographical indication or unregistered trademark, there shall be included in the statement of the grounds of opposition a representation of that geographical indication or trademark and the goods in respect of which protection is claimed.
- (6) If the opponent fails to comply with any requirement relating to the notice of opposition, the opposition shall be deemed to be never to have been made.
- (7) The opponent shall, at the same time as the filing of the notice of opposition, serve the notice of opposition to the applicant together with the statement of the grounds of opposition and failure to do so shall result in the opposition to be deemed to be never to have been made.

Filing of counterstatement

17. (1) As stated in subsection 16(4) of the Act and regulation 8 of the Regulations, the applicant shall, within the period of two months from the date of receipt of the notice of opposition from the opponent, file a counterstatement with the Registrar together with payment of the prescribed fee (Fee Code: GIA9).

- (2) The applicant shall, at the same time as the filing of the counterstatement, serve a copy of the counterstatement to the opponent.

Evidence in support of opposition

- 18. (1) As stated in subsection 16(7) of the Act and regulation 9 of the Regulations, the opponent shall, within two months from the date of receipt of the counterstatement, file such evidence by way of statutory declaration in support of the opposition with the Registrar.
- (2) The opponent shall, at the same time as the filing of the evidence in support of the opposition, serve a copy of such evidence to the applicant.

Evidence in support of application for registration of geographical indication

- 19. (1) As stated in subsection 16(7) of the Act and regulation 10 of the Regulations, the applicant shall, within two months from the date of receipt of the evidence in support of opposition, file such evidence by way of statutory declaration in support of the application for registration of geographical indication with the Registrar.
- (2) The applicant shall, at the same time as the filing of the evidence in support of the application for registration of geographical indication, serve a copy of such evidence to the opponent.

Evidence in reply by opponent

- 20. (1) As stated in subsection 16(9) of the Act and regulation 11 of the Regulations, the opponent may, within two months from the date of receipt of evidence in support of the application for registration of geographical indication, file such evidence in reply by way of statutory declaration with the Registrar.

- (2) The opponent shall, at the same time as the filing of the evidence in reply, serve a copy of such evidence to the applicant.
- (3) The evidence in reply shall be confined to matters strictly in reply to the applicant's evidence in support of the application for registration of geographical indication.

Further evidence

21. As stated in regulation 12 of the Regulations, no further evidence may be filed by the opponent or applicant unless with the leave of the Registrar and upon such terms as to costs, or otherwise as the Registrar thinks fit.

Written submission

22. As stated in regulation 13 of the Regulations, after completion of the filing of the evidence including any exhibits under regulations 9, 10, 11 and 12, the opponent and applicant may, within two months from the date of issuance of a notice by the Registrar, file a written submission with the Registrar.

Extension of time for opposition proceedings

23. (1) As stated in regulation 14 of the Regulations, the Registrar may grant an extension of time upon request by the opponent or applicant together with payment of the prescribed fee (Fee Code: GIA17).
- (2) The request for an extension of time may be applied for a period not exceeding six months except for subparagraph 16(2).
- (3) Where a request for extension of time is requested by the opponent or applicant, the party seeking the extension of time shall, at the same time as the application for extension of time is requested, inform the other party of the proceedings that a request for extension of time has been filed with the Registrar.

Registrar's decision in opposition proceedings

24. (1) As soon as may be after the expiration of the period specified in paragraph 22, the Registrar shall consider the evidence, exhibit and any written submissions and may within two months communicate his decision in accordance with subsection 16(11) of the Act and the grounds of his decision in writing to the parties of the opposition proceedings.
- (2) The date on which the Registrar's written grounds of decision is issued to the parties shall be deemed to be the date of the Registrar's decision for the purpose of an appeal in Court.
- (3) Any appeal to the Court against the Registrar's decision shall be made within one month from the date referred to in subparagraph (2).

45. (1) Pursuant to paragraph 32(1)(d) of the Act, in the event of death of an agent, any person representing the agent or the legal representative of the agent shall notify the Registrar within one month from the date of death together with payment of the prescribed fee (Fee Code: GIA37).
- (2) The Registrar shall, after receiving the notification in subparagraph (1), halt the activity of the proceedings relating to applications for registration of geographical indication or registered geographical indication which are handled by the deceased for a period of three months or until the applicant or registered proprietor of the geographical indication has appointed or authorized a new agent to act on his behalf before the end of the period of three months.

- (3) If the applicant for registration of geographical indication or registered proprietor of geographical indication does not appoint or authorize a new agent to act on his behalf within three months under subparagraph (2), the Registrar shall publish the application or registered geographical indication in the Journal to be taken up by other agent after receiving the appointment or authorization from the applicant for registration of geographical indication or registered proprietor of geographical indication.

Division 2

Appointment and authorization of an agent

Agent may act on behalf of an applicant etc. for purposes of the Act

46. (1) Subject to the scope of the agent's authority, an agent may act for any person as listed in subsection 29(2) of the Act in any proceeding on his behalf.
- (2) No person may appoint more than one agent to act for him concurrently in respect of the same proceeding before the Registrar relating to an application for registration of geographical indication or a registered geographical indication and where there is more than one agent is on record for the same proceeding, the Registrar shall recognize only the latest agent duly appointed and authorized by the applicant, registered proprietor or any person in any proceeding before the Registrar.

Appointment and authorization of agent

47. (1) For the purposes of appointing and authorizing an agent under section 29 of the Act, the Registrar may require a supporting document proving that the agent is appointed and authorized by the applicant, registered proprietor or any persons in any proceedings before the Registrar.

(2) Where—

(a) a person appoints or authorizes an agent for the first time or appoints or authorizes one agent in substitution for another; or

(b) after a person has become a party to proceedings involving a third party before the Registrar, the person appoints or authorizes an agent for the first time or appoints or authorizes one agent in substitution for another, the newly appointed agent shall file an application for appointment or authorization of agent with the Registrar together with payment of the prescribed fee (Fee Code: GIA27).

(3) Any newly appointed agent shall not perform any act required or authorized by the Act in connection with the registration of a geographical indication or any procedure relating to a geographical indication unless the agent files the application for appointment or authorization of agent under subparagraph (2).

Registrar may refuse to recognize agent

48. The Registrar may refuse to recognize any person as an agent in respect of any proceedings under the Act as stated in regulation 31 of the Regulations.

Filing of termination of the appointment and authorization of agent

49. An applicant, opponent, registered proprietor or any other person in any proceeding before the Registrar may file a notice to terminate the appointment and authorization of an agent referred to in subsection 29(3) of the Act and subregulation 32(1) of the Regulations with the Registrar together with payment of the prescribed fee (Fee Code: GIA27).

Filing of notice of intention to cease to act

50. Pursuant to subsection 29(4) of the Act and subregulation 32(2) of the Regulations, an agent shall file a notice of intention to cease to act on behalf of a person with the Registrar together with payment of the prescribed fee (Fee Code: GIA28).
